

Parents,

BridgePrep Academy of Tampa does not provide transportation services. If you are unable to transport your child consistently, we encourage you to make alternative arrangements that work best for your family.

If you choose to use a daycare or another transportation provider, please inform your child's teacher and the front office so we are aware of who is responsible for your child's transportation.

Thanks.

